

Washington from £449

Washington DC, the capital of the American Nation is steeped in constitutional history and architectural heritage, and most of the city's places of interest are free to visit! The District of Columbia, America's only city-state, is divided into four quadrants and one of the best ways to see all the sights is to take the Old Town Trolley. Hop on and hop off at the National Mall, The US Capitol and the The Lincoln Memorial. Other popular stops are the Washington Monument and the White House.

The 14 museums making up the Smithsonian Institution are also here – don't miss exhibits such as the Wright Brothers plane that made the first powered flight in 1903 – housed within the National Air & Space Museum. Across the Potomac River is the Arlington National Cemetery where you will find The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and the eternal flame that marks the grave of President John F. Kennedy.

In addition to its famous monuments and museums Washington has attractive neighbourhoods, such as Dupont Circle, Georgetown and Adams Morgans each offering excellent restaurants and shops. There is also plenty going on in the evenings.
